Cases Registered Under Atrocities Act

4397. SHRI PRAKASH YASHWANT AMBEDKAR: Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a)the number of cases registered under the Atrocities Act from the year 1988 to 1993;

(b)whether all the registered cases have been disposed of without action;

(c)if not, the stage at which the cases are at present; and

(d) the number of special judges appointed under the Atrocities Act in each State?

THE MINISTER OF WELFARE (SHRI SITARAM KESRI): (a) to (c) The Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 came into force w.e.f. 30th January, 1990. Therefore the question of furnish- ing information for the year 1988 and 1989 does not arise. This Act extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir. The details about the number of cases registered under the Act during 1990 and its disposal are given in the Statement (see below). Similar details for the year 1991,1992 and 1993 are being cbllected and will be laid on the Table of the House.

(d) The State Government of Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram and Nagaland have not specified any Special Court as the atrocity cases reported in these States are negligible. This Act does not extend to Jammu and Kashmir. All the remaining States Govts, and U.T. Administrations have specified the existing courts of Sessions as the Special Courts for the trial of offences under the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989. The State Government of Rajasthan and Andhra Pradesh have also set up sixteen and three exclusive Special Courts respectively for trying such cases.
